A vibrant, abstract silhouette of a cat, likely a Siamese, created from a collage of various colored paper scraps. The colors include bright yellow, lime green, cyan blue, magenta, and coral red. The cat is positioned in the upper half of the frame, with its head turned slightly to the right. Its eyes are represented by two small, round, black-and-white googly eyes. The whiskers are made of thin, dark brown lines. The body of the cat is composed of numerous overlapping rectangular and irregular paper pieces, creating a mosaic effect. The background is a solid, dark charcoal gray.
