The image shows a grey door decorated for autumn. On the left is a large brown tree trunk. To its right are several large, multi-petaled flowers in shades of red, orange, and yellow. Two small birds are perched on the tree branches. Below the flowers are two birdhouses: one green with an orange circle and one brown with a yellow circle. A small window in the door shows a view of the outdoors. At the bottom left is a red mushroom with white spots. The floor is covered with a layer of red, orange, and yellow leaves. A handwritten message in black cursive script is centered on the door.
